A reading with Christopher Cokinos and Eric Magrane, editors of The Sonoran Desert: A Literary Field Guide (University of Arizona Press, $19.95), joined by several local contributors: Christine Baines, Wynne Brown, Melissa Buckheit, Simmons Buntin, Wendy Burk, Gerry Connolly, Tj Hoffman Duffy, Kimi Eisele, Heather Nagami, Jeevan Narney, and Logan Phillips. A land of austerity and bounty, the Sonoran Desert is a place that captures imaginations and hearts. It is a place where thorns prick, claws scratch, and bobcats skulk in creosote. Both literary anthology and hands-on field guide, this is a groundbreaking book that melds art and science. It captures the stunning biodiversity of the world's most verdant desert through words and images. More than fifty poets and writers have composed responses to key species of this striking desert. Each creative contribution is matched with an illustration by award-winning artist Paul Mirocha as well as scientific information about the creature or plant. From the saguaro to the mountain lion, from the black-tailed jackrabbit to the mesquite, the species represented here have evoked compelling and creative responses from each contributor.

The reading will be followed by a question and answer period.
Refreshments will be served.
