Major Projects and Collaborations

- 2021–Present Critical Approaches to Place: Teaching Narrative Mapping in Southern New Mexico. Collaborator/Co-PI: Dr. Kerry Banazek, New Mexico State University Department of English. Three-year initiative informed by humanities approaches to place, rhetoric, and the environment that support the development of innovative interdisciplinary curricula. Outputs include a faculty development workshop; design and implementation of a new interdisciplinary class examining sense of place, media, mapping, and representation; a public lecture series; and collaborations with multiple community partners. Funding by National Endowment for the Humanities for 2021–2024.
- 2019–2020 A Literary Inventory of Organ Mountains-Desert Peaks National Monument. Collaborating organizations: Friends of Organ Mountains-Desert Peaks/Bureau of Land Management, Las Cruces, NM. Public geohumanities project gathering more than 50 contributors to create poetry and prose addressing species residing in Organ Mountains-Desert Peaks. Outputs include public talks, presentations, and a special issue of online literary journal Spiral Orb: An Experiment in Permaculture Poetics.
- 2015–2019 Bycatch: An Art-Science Approach to the Gulf of California Shrimp Trawling Fishery. Collaborating organization: Next Generation Sonoran Desert Researchers (N-Gen), Tucson, AZ/Bahía Kino, Sonora, Mexico. Collaborator: Maria Johnson, Prescott College Kino Bay Center. Bycatch addresses sustainability of fisheries through geohumanities, poetics, art, and political ecology. Outputs include literary and academic articles and a multimedia exhibit at The University of Arizona Museum of Art.

- 2012–2018 Woven Words: Poetry at the Arizona-Sonora Desert Museum. Collaborating organizations: Arizona-Sonora Desert Museum/The University of Arizona Poetry Center, Tucson, AZ. Poetry installations centered on conservation issues at the Arizona-Sonora Desert Museum, a world-class bioregional zoo, botanical garden, and natural history museum that receives 400,000 visitors annually. Funding from Tucson Pima Arts Council, Arizona Commission on the Arts, The University of Arizona Confluentcenter for Creative Inquiry, and private donors.
- 2012–2016 The Sonoran Desert: A Literary Field Guide. Collaborators: Christopher Cokinos and Paul Mirocha, The University of Arizona. Book combining the forms of bioregional literary anthology and field guide, with work addressing Sonoran Desert species by more than 60 contributors, field guide entries by Eric Magrane and Christopher Cokinos, and illustrations by Paul Mirocha.
- 2011 A Poetic Inventory of Saguaro National Park. Collaborating organizations: National Park Service/National Geographic Society. Arts component of the Saguaro National Park BioBlitz, with 80 writers contributing poems and prose addressing species found within the boundaries of the National Park. Replicated at Rocky Mountain National Park and Oregon State University.
